(7) Any vacancy in the Tribunal may be filled by appointment of another person from the panel of names prepared by the selection committee constituted under sub-rule (3).

(8) The non-official members of the Tribunal shall be paid sitting allowance as the State Government may determine, but it shall not be less than rupees five hundred per sitting per member.

(9) The meetings of the Tribunal shall depend upon the expediency and requirement.

(10) The Tribunal shall perform the functions of adjudicating and disposing of cases of maintenance to achieve the objects of the Act and in this respect shall be guided by the provisions laid down under Chapter II of the Act.

4. Panel for appointment as Conciliation Officers.—(1) Every Tribunal shall prepare a panel of persons suitable for appointment as Conciliation Officer as defined in explanation to sub-section (6) of section 6 of the Act.

(2) Every Conciliation Officer shall have the following qualifications, namely :—

- (a) he should be associated with an organization which is working for the welfare of senior citizens and/or weaker sections, or in the area of education, health, poverty alleviation, women's empowerment, social welfare, or related fields, for at least two years with an unblemished record of service ;
- (b) he should be a senior office bearer of the organization ; and
- (c) he should possess good knowledge of law :

Provided that a person who is not associated with an organization of the kind mentioned above, may also be included in the panel mentioned in sub-rule (1), if he fulfils the following conditions, namely :—

- (a) he has a good and unblemished record of public service in one or more of the areas mentioned in clause (a) of sub-rule (2) ; and
- (b) he has good knowledge of law.

(3) The Tribunal shall publish the panel mentioned in sub-rule (1) for general information at least twice every year, on 1st January and 1st July, respectively, and every time any change is effected therein.

(4) Conciliation Officer shall be paid such honorarium and allowances as may be prescribed by the State Government.

5. Procedure for filing an application for maintenance and its registration.—(1) An application for maintenance under section 5 shall be made under a prescribed format as in Form “A”.

(2) On receipt of an application, the Presiding Officer shall cause—

- (a) its essential details to be entered in a Register of Maintenance Claim Cases, to be maintained by the Maintenance Tribunal ; and
- (b) its acknowledgment in Form ‘B’ to be given, notwithstanding anything contained in rule 6, to the applicant or his authorized representative in case of hand delivery, and its dispatch by post in other cases and the acknowledgement shall specify, inter alia, the registration number of the application.

(3) Where a Tribunal takes cognizance of a maintenance claim, suo motu, the Presiding Officer shall, after ascertaining the facts, get Form ‘A’ completed as accurately as possible, and shall get it authenticated by the concerned senior citizen or parent, or any person or organization authorized by him and shall cause the same to be registered in accordance with clause (a) of sub-rule (2) above.

6. Preliminary scrutiny of the application.—(1) On receipt of an application under section 5, the Tribunal shall satisfy itself that—

- (a) the application is complete ; and
- (b) the opposite party has prima facie an obligation to maintain the applicant in terms of section 4.

(2) In case where the Tribunal finds any lacunae in the application, it may direct the applicant to rectify such lacunae within 15 days of filing of the application.

(3) Every application shall be heard and decided, within 3 months from the date of its presentation.

7. Notice to the opposite party.—(1) Once the Tribunal records its satisfaction under sub-rule (1) of rule 6, it shall cause to be issued to each person against whom an application for maintenance has been filed, a notice in Form ‘C’ directing them to show cause as to why the application should not be allowed, along with a copy of the application and its enclosures, in the following manner :—

- (a) by hand delivery (Dasti) through the applicant, if he so desires, else through a process server ; or
- (b) by registered post with due acknowledgement.

(2) The notice shall require the opposite party to appear in person, on the date to be specified in the notice and to show cause, in writing, as to why the application should not be allowed and shall also inform that, in case the opposite party fails to respond, the Tribunal shall proceed ex parte.

(3) The applicant(s) shall also be informed of the date mentioned in sub-rule (2), through a notice issued in Form ‘D’.

(4) The provisions of Order V of the Code of Civil Procedure, Samvat 1977 shall apply, mutatis mutandis, for the purpose of service of notice under sub-rules (2) and (3).

(5) The Tribunal shall have all the powers of a Civil Court for the purpose of taking evidence on oath and of enforcing the attendance of witnesses of compelling the discovery and production of documents and material objects and for such other purposes as may be prescribed ; and the Tribunal shall be deemed to be a Civil Court for all the purposes of section 195 and Chapter XXXV of the Code of Criminal Procedure, Samvat 1989.

8. Procedure in case of non-appearance of opposite party.—In case, despite service of notice, the opposite party fails to show cause in response to a notice, the Tribunal shall proceed ex parte, by taking evidence of the applicant and making such other inquiry as it deems fit, and shall pass an order disposing of the application.

9. Procedure in case of admission of claim.—(1) An application by the opposite party, under the proviso to section 5 of the Act, to implead any other child or relative of the applicant shall be filed on the first date of hearing as specified in the notice issued under sub-rule (2) of rule 7 :

Provided that no such application shall be entertained after such first hearing, unless the opposite party shows sufficient cause for filing it at a later stage.

(2) On receipt of an application under sub-rule (1), the Tribunal shall, if it is prima facie satisfied, after hearing the parties, about the reasonableness of such application, issue notice to such other child or relative to show cause why they should not be impleaded as a party, and shall after giving them an opportunity of being heard, pass an order regarding their impleadment or otherwise.

(3) In case the Tribunal passes an order of impleadment under sub-rule (2), it shall cause a notice to be issued to such impleaded party in Form “C” in accordance with rule 7.

10. Reference to Conciliation Officer.—(1) In case, on the date fixed in the notice issued under rule 7, the opposite party appears and shows cause against the maintenance claim, the Tribunal shall seek the opinion of both the parties as to whether they would like the matter to be referred to a Conciliation Officer and if they express their willingness in this behalf, the Tribunal shall ask them whether they would like the matter to be referred to a person included in the panel prepared under rule 4, or to any other person acceptable to both the parties.

(2) If both the parties agree on any person, whether included in the panel under rule 4 or otherwise, the Tribunal shall appoint such person as the Conciliation Officer in the case, and shall refer the matter to him, through a letter in Form 'E', requesting the Conciliation Officer to try and work out a settlement acceptable to both the parties, within a period not exceeding one month from the date of receipt of the reference.

(3) The reference in Form 'E' shall be accompanied with copies of the application and replies of the opposite party thereto.

11. Proceedings by Conciliation Officer.—(1) Upon receipt of a reference under rule 10, the Conciliation Officer shall hold meetings with the parties as necessary, and shall try to work out a settlement acceptable to both the parties, within a period of one month from the date of receipt of the reference.

(2) If the Conciliation Officer succeeds in working out a settlement acceptable to both the parties, he shall draw up a memorandum of settlement in Form 'F', get it signed by both the parties, and forward it, with a report in Form 'G', along with all records of the case received from the Tribunal, back to the Tribunal within a month from the receipt of the reference.

(3) If the Conciliation Officer is unable to arrive at a settlement within one month of receipt of a reference under rule 10, he shall return the papers received from the Tribunal along with a report in Form 'H', showing efforts made to bring about a settlement and the points of difference between the parties which could not be reconciled.

12. Action by the Tribunal in case of settlement before a Conciliation Officer.—(1) In case, the Tribunal receives a report from the Conciliation Officer under sub-rule (2) of rule 11, along with a memorandum of settlement, it shall give notice to both the parties to appear before it on a date to be specified in the notice, and confirm the settlement.

(2) In case on the date specified in the notice as above, the parties appear before the Tribunal and confirm the settlement arrived at before the Conciliation Officer, the Tribunal shall pass a final order as agreed in such settlement.

13. Action by the Tribunal in other cases.—(1) In case,—

- (a) the applicant(s) and the opposite parties do not agree for reference of their dispute to a Conciliation Officer as per rule 10 ; or
- (b) the Conciliation Officer appointed under rule 10 sends a report under sub-rule (3) of rule 11, conveying inability to work out a settlement acceptable to both the parties ; or
- (c) no report is received from a Conciliation Officer within the stipulated time limit of one month ; or
- (d) in response to the notice issued under sub-rule (1) of rule 12, one or both the parties decline to confirm the settlement worked out by the Conciliation Officer. The Tribunal shall give to both the parties an opportunity of leading evidence in support of their respective claims, and shall, after a summary inquiry as provided in sub-section (1) of section 8, pass such order as it deems fit.

(2) An order passed under rule 8, or under sub-rule (1) above shall be a speaking one, spelling out the facts of the case as ascertained by the Tribunal, and the reasons for the order.

(3) While passing an order under sub-rule (1), directing the opposite party to pay maintenance to an applicant, the Tribunal shall take the following into consideration :—

- (a) amount needed by the applicant to meet his basic needs, especially food, clothing, accommodation, and healthcare ;
- (b) income of the opposite party ; and
- (c) value of, and actual and potential income from the property, if any, of the applicant which the opposite party would inherit and/or is in possession of.

(4) A copy of every order passed, whether final or interim, on an application, shall be given to the applicant(s) and the opposite party or their representatives, in person or shall be sent to them through a process server or by registered post.

14. Form of appeal.—An appeal under sub-section (1) of section 16 of the Act shall be filed before the Appellate Tribunal in Form ‘I’, and shall be accompanied by a copy of the impugned order of the Maintenance Tribunal.

15. Registration and acknowledgement of appeal.—On receipt of an appeal, the Appellate Tribunal shall register it in a register to be maintained for the purpose in such form as the State Government may direct, and shall, after registering such appeal, give an acknowledgement to the appellant, specifying the appeal number and the next date of hearing, in Form ‘J’.

16. Notice of hearing to the respondent.—(1) On receipt of an appeal, the Appellate Tribunal shall, after registering the case and assigning an appeal number, cause notice to be served upon the respondent under its seal and signature in Form ‘K’.

(2) The notice under sub-rule (1) shall be issued through registered post with acknowledgement due, or through a process server.

(3) The provisions of Order V of the Civil Procedure Code shall apply mutatis mutandis for the purposes of service of notice issued under sub-rule (1).
